

STONE HILTON

STONE HILTON PROMOTES ALEX DVORSCAK TO PARTNER

Sept. 9, 2025

AUSTIN - Stone Hilton is proud to announce the promotion of Alex Dvorscak to Partner, recognizing his outstanding litigation experience, courtroom achievements, and commitment to client service.

Since joining Stone Hilton from an elite Houston-based commercial trial boutique, Alex has quickly distinguished himself as a dynamic trial lawyer trusted by clients to handle high-stakes disputes.

Based in Houston, his broad litigation experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants includes trying several cases to verdict, including a breach of contract jury trial in Harris County, a trade secret and patent jury trial in the Central District of California, a tortious interference with contract jury trial in Travis County, and a breach of contract and fraud bench trial in Harris County. He similarly has significant experience winning injunction hearings, achieving victories for his clients in actions including antitrust and tortious interference with contract, breach of contract and secured credit, and trademark disputes. He has accordingly represented a broad range of clients in employment disputes, business torts, and complex oil and gas litigation in disputes nationwide.

“Alex’s rapid rise is a testament to his skill in the courtroom, his relentless work ethic, and his ability to deliver results for our clients,” said Chris Hilton, Partner of Stone Hilton. “He is a true trial lawyer, and we are thrilled to welcome him into the partnership.”

Outside the Courtroom, Alex serves as President of the Houston Chapter of the Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy. He is a parishioner at St. Anne Catholic Community and a proud father of his four children.

Mr. Dvorscak received dual bachelor’s degrees in Mathematics and Economics, with a minor in History, from the University of Buffalo. He earned his J.D. at Columbia Law School, graduating with Stone Scholar honors each year. While at Columbia, he served as Chair of the Madison Judicial Lecture Series for the Federalist Society and as Vice President of Devinimus, the law school’s wine society.

After law school, Alex began his career at a top international law firm in New York before clerking for the Honorable Charles Eskridge of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. As Judge Eskridge’s inaugural law clerk, Alex played a pivotal role in establishing chambers operations while contributing to significant cases before the court.

More news to come as Stone Hilton will make additional announcements in the near future.

TEXAS LITIGATORS
600 Congress Ave., Suite 2350, Austin, TX 78701
737-465-3897