

STONE HILTON

GOVERNOR ABBOTT'S DEPUTY GENERAL COUNSEL, ANTHONY RODREGOUS, JOINS STONE HILTON

March 9, 2026

AUSTIN – Stone Hilton is proud to announce Anthony Rodregous, a seasoned trial lawyer and former senior government official with extensive litigation experience, has joined the Austin-based law firm.

Before joining Stone Hilton, Mr. Rodregous served as Deputy General Counsel for Gov. Greg Abbott, where he managed all litigation involving the governor and led multiple Texas agencies through complex, high-profile legal challenges. He also served as Counsel to U.S. Sen. Ted Cruz, managing critical policy portfolios, leading amicus efforts, and assisting with judicial nominations. Mr. Rodregous logged countless hours in federal court as an Assistant United States Attorney and began his legal career as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Leon Schydlower in the Western District of Texas and the Honorable Otis Wright in the Central District of California.

Additionally, Mr. Rodregous serves as a Captain in the U.S. Army Reserves as a Judge Advocate where he counsels a command charged with innovation across the entire Army reserve.

"We are thrilled to have Anthony join our team. His legal acumen, high-stakes litigation experience, and mission-driven focus is something that cannot be replicated," said Judd Stone, partner at Stone Hilton. "He thrives under pressure, brings order to chaos, and delivers results when it matters most."

Mr. Rodregous graduated Summa Cum Laude from San Francisco State University and received his law degree from the University of California, Hastings. Before college he served in the 82nd Airborne Division in the U.S. Army and deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan where he saw combat.

At Stone Hilton, Anthony will focus on complex litigation, high-stakes disputes, and strategic legal counseling, further strengthening the firm's reputation for courtroom excellence.

TEXAS LITIGATORS
600 Congress Ave., Suite 2350, Austin, TX 78701
737-465-3897